“Our school is much more than a learning institution – we are a Christ-centered, loving community that works together for the best outcomes for every student. We hope you’ll join us.”

Judy Hinck, Principal

“The critical thinking skills and moral principles that were made alive to me at Gethsemane remain with me....I hope to continue to be a leader of faith and justice wherever I may reside.”

Nathan Ruckle, Alumnus

For more than 60 years, Gethsemane Lutheran School has challenged and celebrated students while raising them to be servants of Christ in the world. Stop by one of our Open Houses and discover why students, parents, and teachers love Gethsemane:

- Small class sizes for more individualized attention.
- Passionate teachers averaging 10+ years experience.
- Interactive technology to enhance the learning experience.
- Interdisciplinary education with fine arts, sports, chapel.
